S.A. 295/2001

A mention has been made on behalf of the Bar Association that they have passed a resolution for a token strike on 15.5.2008, therefore, no adverse orders may be passed.

The matter has already been heard on 14.5.2008 and on the request of Shri Alok Singh, Sr. Advocate at the fag end of the day. Today, the matter has been directed for further hearing.

Since, there is a token strike of the Bar Association and the Advocates have abstained themselves from working, put up the matter on 20.5.2008.
